

MPT OBSERVES FIRE SERVICE WEEK

The Fire Service Week (FSW) is observed nationwide from 14th April to 20th April to pay due respect and homage to the 66 Nos. Fire Personnel who lost their lives in the devastating fire that erupted and explosions that followed on 14th April, 1944 at Victoria Dock in Bombay Port, and also to prevent incidences of fire in all industries.

The inaugural function of the Fire Service Week at Mormugao Port Trust was held on 14th April 2017 at the Port Fire Station. The function commenced by laying of a wreath in memory of the martyrs at hands of Shri A. Ganesan, Chief Mechanical Engineer, Mormugao Port Trust, in the presence of Dy. Chief Mechanical Engineer, Materials Manager, Superintending Engineer (M), Superintending Engineer (E) and other senior officers of the Port.

During the Fire Service Week, several programmes were organised by the Fire Brigade Section of the Port viz., like demonstration on First Aid, fire fighting and mock drills, in various locations of the Port area with a view to propagate awareness amongst the Port employees, their families and the general public.
